SELECTMEN'S REPORT.

FELLOW CITIZENS,—We feel it to be a part of our duty to present with this report some information concerning those interests of the town which are especially entrusted to the care of the Selectmen, and which cannot be gathered from other pages of this book. The Highways are in a condition as good as can be expected, when the extent of the same, and the means expended, are considered, and will compare most favorably with those of other towns similarly circumstanced. They are, indeed, frequently and favorably commented upon by our observant citizens; as well as by visitors who are permitted to enjoy the luxury of a drive through our well-finished streets.

Our clean, gravel sidewalks, (of which, by the way, we have more miles than has any other town of like population within the commonwealth,) command the praise of those who, for want of other means of locomotion, or from preference, make use of them. If kept in their present excellent condition, there appears to be no reason why our townsmen should walk otherwise than uprightly. The work in this department has been performed by the town force, with here and there a small contract allotted to one or another of our citizens.

We have recently been called upon to lay out a part of Central avenue, and a part of Summit street, both of which will be ready for your consideration at an early day. Papers have been forwarded to the County Commissioners praying for a continuation of Charles street (formerly known as White's crossing) across the Boston & Providence Railroad, to Central Park avenue. There appears to be a necessity for a town-way at this point, and if one can be laid out at grade, and constructed at a reasonable cost, we think it will be wise to hasten its completion. The County Commissioners have also been requested to order the establishment of a gate at the crossing of the Boston, Hartford & Erie Railroad at Fairmount avenue, and the Boston & Providence Railroad Corporation have been asked to maintain flagmen at the crossings of the railroad at West street and Metropolitan avenue, all of which requests will, we hope, be granted, as at all these points, life and limb are too often imperilled.

At one of your late meetings you authorized us to purchase gravel land, for the future needs of the town. As yet we have received but few proposals from land owners, and, as most of these came after the falling of snow, we have had but little opportunity to select. Therefore at this time we have made no purchase, but may, however, buy some parcel before this reaches you.

The street lamps have been increased from seventy-six to one hundred and four, and the expense for their keeping is now at the rate of twenty-four hundred dollars per annum. We have contracted with the New England Gas Light Co., of Boston, for the maintenance of the lights; using their burners,<sup>1</sup> which is the subject of a recent invention. Although the quantity and quality of the light has not, at all times, been satisfactory, we can say that the party to the other part of the contract has striven to serve us, been prompt to correct faults, and has, latterly, given as much light as the terms of agreement require, while for brilliancy it equals the best. Some very late improvements have been made, both in lantern and material burned, and we can but think that it will be for the interest of the town to renew the agreement with the before-named company, at the expiration of the present term of contract.

In accordance with instructions received at the meeting holden May 6, 1873, we have organized a police force, establishing rules for its government, which you will find appended hereto. The members of the force are, we believe, men of good character, and faithful in the performance of their duty. In the general good order maintained in our streets, and in the greater sense of security felt in our homes, may be found encomium more eloquent than any that may be here written, and (may we hope) a satisfactory offset to this additional expense.

HENRY GREW,
MARTIN L. WHITCHER,
BENJ. F. RADFORD.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR ITS GOVERNMENT.

“THE force shall be under the control of the Selectmen, or of some person appointed by them as Supervisor of the Police.

“The Selectmen shall make all appointments to the service, and shall keep a book in which shall be entered the name, age, birth-place, and date of service of each member of the department, together with all accounts and expenses of the same.

“The Selectmen may suspend from duty any member of the force, upon the existence of any cause which to them may seem sufficient.

“The appointing power designs to select men for duty with a view to their fitness for the position and usefulness in the service; therefore the applicant must possess the following qualifications:—

“First—He must be a citizen of the United States, and have been a resident of the Town for at least one year.

“Second—He must be not over forty-five or under twenty-one years of age when first appointed.

“Third—He must be in sound health, of industrious habits, and of good moral character.

“All applications must be made in the handwriting of the candidate for office.

“Before entering upon duty the officer shall subscribe to the following oath, to be administered by the Town Clerk, viz.:—‘I, _____, do solemnly swear that I will discharge all the duties incumbent on me as a police officer of Hyde Park, to the best of my ability,—SO HELP ME GOD.’

“Each member must be of peaceable manners, quiet and civil in his deportment, respectful to the community, decorous, and cleanly in person and dress, prompt and zealous in action, energetic, patient and discreet in the performance of his duty; refraining from violent, coarse, or profane language.

“Punctual attendance, prompt obedience to orders, and conformity to the rules of the department will be firmly required.

“No member shall, while in the employ of the department, make use of any intoxicating liquor or malt liquor as a beverage. Prompt dismissal will follow any infraction of this rule.

“No member shall accept from any source reward or gift whatsoever for services rendered while on duty, unless with the written consent of the Selectmen; nor then, unless he has, in writing, stated the nature and extent of such service.

“Each officer will be furnished with a numbered badge, which ordinarily must be exposed to sight, and he shall state his name and number when demanded.

“The officer must enforce the statute laws and by-laws of the Town, and will be required to attend to the following specific duties, together with such others as may be added by the Selectmen or their representative:—

“He must furnish such information, and render such aid, when requested, as is consistent with his duty. He shall direct strangers, when solicited, the best way to their places of destination, and, if necessary, accompany them thither.

“He shall deliver lost children to their friends, or to a place of refuge, and shall render immediate aid in case of accident or sudden illness occurring on the street, ascertaining all the particulars thereof, and making record of the same.

“While on duty, he must note all street and sidewalk obstructions, and all defects in the streets or sidewalks, from which accidents might occur, and he must remove all obstacles, and make safe all dangerous places, if practicable; if not within his means so to do, he will notify the Selectmen without loss of time.

“He shall notify the Selectmen of places where noisome, dangerous, or unwholesome trade is carried on, or where buildings are in a condition dangerous to those in or around them.

“He shall weekly report as to the condition of the street lamps, where the same are not lighted at the proper time, or too early extinguished, or where unclean, or giving insufficient light.

“Where sweepings, garbage, dead animals, or other nuisance is thrown into the street, he shall notify the party responsible for the offence, and, if repeated, shall report to the Selectmen.

“He must, as far as practicable, keep an oversight of dwellings and stores, and see that the entrances from the street are properly secured at night, or give such notice to the occupant, that they may be made safe.

“He must watch unoccupied buildings, to prevent depredations; and where property is carelessly or unnecessarily exposed, he will make known the fact to the person in charge thereof.

“He must be vigilant to prevent fires, and make reasonable effort to procure the removal of combustible rubbish from the vicinity of buildings. If it comes to his knowledge that any property is in an unusually hazardous condition, he will communicate the fact to one of the Engineers of the Fire Department.

“ On discovering a fire, the officer shall first see if it cannot be extinguished without assistance. If it cannot, or if he hears the alarm from another party, he will at once spring his rattle, and take such other means for gathering the community as may be at hand.

“ The officer present at a fire will, as far as possible, protect exposed property, and will also endeavor to keep lookers-on away from falling walls, or aloof from any other threatening danger. If near the bridges, he will see that they are not too heavily loaded with people or fire apparatus.

“ The officer may question or examine any person found abroad after ten o'clock in the night, whom he may suspect of having unlawful designs; and, if such person fails to give a satisfactory account of his purposes, he may be taken into custody.

“ The officer must strictly watch the conduct of persons of known bad character, or those whom he suspects of having unlawful designs, and to the utmost of his power prevent the commission of contemplated crimes.

“ When a disturbance occurs he must repair to the spot and endeavor to restore order. If a person commits a crime or felonious assault, or otherwise disturbs the peace, such person shall be taken to the lock-up, to await such disposal as the law provides.

“ If at any time the officer is opposed in the performance of his duty, he will spring his rattle, and such other policemen as may be within hearing shall hasten to the spot and render such assistance as may be needed.

“ It shall be the duty of the officer to keep a record of his doings, with day and date, and he shall therein enter a note of all matters of importance transpiring within his district, and connected with his duty. Such books shall be delivered to the Selectmen when wanted.”

The foregoing rules and regulations are approved this sixteenth day of June, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-three.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF ENGINEERS.

ENGINEERS' OFFICE, }
Hyde Park, January 15, 1874. }

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen of Hyde Park:—

GENTLEMEN: Having nearly reached the end of our official term, we herewith submit for your consideration our report for the year ending with date. The needful to enable our Department to meet the requirements for which it was created may be stated, namely:

First,—A good supply of water in Everett square.

Second,—Proper and numerous landings along our river and brooks. These requisites are imperative.

Horses should be provided by the town to take the engines to fires; and we would suggest that it be done in the following manner: As the town employs some six to eight men and four horses on the highways, in case of a fire, that force might be placed under the control of the Engineers of the Fire Department; the Selectmen and Engineers co-operating to the extent of having such horses as the Department could use to advantage, and employing men who would be valuable assistants in time of fire; the drivers of the horses to sleep in the engine-house, so as to be always ready when an alarm is given.

The highway force could be made serviceable at a fire in many ways, such as picking up and washing hose, and otherwise taking care of the Department property, when the firemen are on duty or exhausted by their labors.

LIST OF FIRES IN HYDE PARK FROM JANUARY 15th, 1873, TO JANUARY 15th, 1874.

May.—House of Arthur O'Neal, Walnut street. Slightly damaged; loss $150; fully insured; cause accident.

June 7.—Hyde Park Woolen Mill. Partially destroyed; loss $300,000; fully insured; cause of fire unknown.

June 22.—Thompson's Planing Mill, Bridge street. Loss $5000; cause of fire incendiary; partially insured.

July.—Pest-house, located in the woods south of Dana avenue. Loss $300; cause of fire, incendiary; no insurance.

August.—Hopkirk house, corner of River street and Central Park avenue. Loss $2000; cause of fire, defective flue.

By the above statement it will be seen that the town has suffered heavily—one of these fires being the most disastrous since the incorporation of the town, but the amount of property saved at this conflagration by the services of our feeble department, ought to encourage our citizens to be liberal in their appropriations.

This Board would respectfully ask of the town an appropriation of $4500, to meet the expenses of the Department for the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

H. N. HIBBARD.

E. P. DAVIS,

ROBERT BLEAKIE.

ASSESSORS' REPORT.

The amount voted to be raised for 1873 for State, County and Town tax, was $97,100, and the amount added for overlayings was $570.63, making a total of $97,670.63; this amount being $10,736.63 in excess of the amount raised by taxation in 1872.

The gain in property for the year not having been sufficient to meet the increased tax levy, it was found necessary to increase the rate to $12.50 per $1000.

The Board would call the attention of the real estate owners of the town to the importance of having in their possession, plans of their various parcels of land, as the frequent division of lots made in sales render it almost impossible for the Assessors, in many instances, to determine, with any degree of accuracy, the quantity of land to be assessed; and it is not until after the tax is proportioned, and bills delivered, that they are enabled to learn from interested parties of errors in the assessment, which could easily have been avoided by having such plans to refer to in doubtful cases.

We again urge the importance of making a separate department of the Boards of Health and Poor, as the work of the Assessors require the undivided attention of the whole Board, and we trust that the citizens will recognize the force of this suggestion, the truth of which becomes more apparent year after year.
